

INDIAN VALLEY SCUBA

Required Equipment List: Advanced Diving Courses

Note: STUDENTS WHO ARE PURCHASING EQUIPMENT FOR TRAINING SHOULD CONSULT WITH AN INDIAN VALLEY SCUBA INSTRUCTOR TO ENSURE THEY ARE PURCHASING GEAR THAT IS SUITABLE FOR THE COURSE.

Advanced Scuba Setup

As we advance to more complex levels of diving, new equipment is required to explore the environments our dives will take us to. The below list represents the equipment used during your initial dive training as well as the equipment required to move forward into your next underwater adventure.

- Mesh Gear Bag
- Scuba Mask
- Mask Defog
- Scuba Fins (Open Heel or Full Foot)
- Snorkel (Semi-Dry or Dry Recommended)
- Compressed Gas Cylinder with Valve
- Buoyancy Control Device (Jacket or Back Inflate Style)
- Quick Release Weight System
- Primary Regulator and Alternate Air Source
- Submersible Pressure Gauge (SPG)
- Depth Monitoring Device
- Waterproof Timing Device
- Adequate Exposure Protection for environment
- Audible Surface Signaling Device
- Delayed Surface Marker Buoy
- Dive Slate or Divers Notebook
- Safety Spool / Finger Spool with 100' - 150' of #24 nylon line & double ended clip
- Primary LED or HID Light
- Backup LED Light
- Cutting Device
- Dive Compass
- Recreational Dive Planner (Included in OW Course Materials)
- Log Book (Physical Copy, not electronic)

OPTIONAL:

- Dive Computer
- Pony Bottle w/Regulator & SPG

Rev. 8.2016