2010 Key Largo Dive Packages Add-On's

Indian Valley Scuba is the leader for Florida Keys diving adventures. Our Key Largo dive packages are one of the most popular domestic dive trips in the northeast. We are known for our commitment to training, environmental awareness, and safety while constantly seeking new adventures for our divers to enjoy.

To further enhance our Key Largo expeditions, we have created the following add-on's to our 2010 dive weekends. Each add-on begins two days prior to the regular weekend, and affords our divers the opportunity to experience new and exciting experiences.

Vandenberg, Key West & Looe Key

Dates for this add-on:

- 23 Feb / 25 Feb
- 6 Apr / 8 Apr
- 30 Nov / 2 Dec

Join us as we dive the newest most exciting wreck in the US, the Vandenberg! This 534 ft long Air Force ship (go figure that one out!) sits approx. 5 miles off Key West in 140 ft of water. This dive offers both technical and recreational diving opportunities so divers of all levels can enjoy this wreck. The superstructure starts within 45 ft of the surface, making this perfect for Open Water through Advanced divers. Our dive guides are experienced on this wreck and will ensure a great experience for all. Plus we get to enjoy an evening on Mallory Square in Key Weird!

Looe Key is another great dive site, with reef structure that rivals Key Largo, and another great intact wreck to explore, the Adolphus Busch!

We'll stay two Tuesday & Wednesday nights in our own waterfront condo on Stock Island, on the quiet side of Key West. Our diving includes one 3-tank trip on the Vandenberg, and a 3-tank wreck & reef trip on Looe Key.

Cost: $460.00 per person.

Includes:

- 2 nights lodging double occupancy
- One 3-tank Key West dive trip
- One 3-tank Looe Key dive trip
- Tanks and weights are included on both trips
- Transportation, gratuities and meals are not included

Coral Reef Restoration

Dates for this add-on:

- 25 May / 27 May

The Coral Reef Restoration Foundation is dedicated to restoring the Staghorn coral population throughout the Caribbean. Headquartered in Key Largo, the Foundation's nursery is just offshore, where delicate corals are grown, propagated and prepared for transplant to the reef.

Indian Valley Scuba's divers work alongside the Foundation's team as we help cultivate and transplant live corals to damaged areas of the reef. This trip includes two classroom sessions covering the in's & out's of coral farming, and three dive trips on reef to assist the Foundation in their work.

A portion of the fees for this trip are donated to the Coral Restoration Foundation. For more information you can check out website at www.coralrestoration.org

- One morning classroom session on Wednesday
- One 2-tank dive trip Wednesday p.m.

Key Largo Lobster Mini Season

Dates for this add-on:

- 27 Jul / 29 Jul

Three hundred and sixty three days of the year, we spend countless hours underwater enjoying the majestic beauty of the flora and fauna of the seas. However, for two short and intense days in late July, we finally get a chance to turn the tables around and hunt the elusive crustaceans known as spiny lobsters! The Florida Mini-Season is two days of unbelievable fun and insanity as we seek out and capture the lobsters in preparation of our Friday night feast!

The diving is not for the faint of heart, as each dive day starts with a 3-tank a.m. run, entering the water one hour before sunrise. After a short mid-day siesta, we head back out for another 3-tanker in the p.m., with the last dive ending one hour after sunset. The experience is repeated on the second day, making a total of twelve dives over the course of the two day season.

Cost: $400.00 per person.

Includes:

- 2 nights lodging at Amoray Dive Resort
- Two 3-tank dive trips on Wednesday
- Two 3-tank dive trips on Thursday
