

North Carolina Wreck Diving Discovery Diving Co. Beaufort, NC

August 6-9, 2010 & September 10-13, 2010

Indian Valley Scuba is running two trips this year to visit the 'Graveyard of the Atlantic', North Carolina. Each trip is an IVS-exclusive, with two days of 3-tank diving and a 2-tank trip on the third day, for a total of 8 great dives over three days! No one loves to dive like IVS, and there's no diving like North Carolina in the summer!

The Accommodations

The Discovery Diving Dive Lodge is located two blocks from the dive shop providing economical accommodations in dormitory style shared rooms and one bath for men and one for women. Optional (added cost) accommodations can be made at the Holiday Inn approximately 5 miles from the dive shop.

The Diving

North Carolina boasts some of the best diving in the world. Rodale's Scuba Diving Magazine rated the area known as the Graveyard of the Atlantic as one of North America's Best Diving locations. This area has been recognized as offering the best wreck diving and biggest animal encounters in Atlantic waters. Beneath the blue waters of North Carolina's crystal coast lies a variety of exciting wrecks and artificial reefs. You will find German U-boats, modern vessels and historical sites all located in one of the healthiest marine environments. Divers will find tropical gulf stream water with average air temperature 78 degrees in the summer months and water temperature 78-80 degrees with visibility 80-100 feet.
