

Micronesia Three Island Diving Extravaganza Nov 27 - Dec 12, 2010

The Diving

One of the world's wreck diving meccas is Truk Lagoon (also known as Chuuk), where over fifty Japanese naval vessels were sunk during WWII. The U.S.-led Operation Hailstorm delivered a devastating blow against the Japanese Merchant Fleet. Today, the site of this historic attack holds the distinction of being the world's finest wreck diving destination. Cargo ships with loaded hulls, intact and penetrable engine rooms, anemone covered decks, and large animals are just part of what makes diving Chuuk Lagoon an experience of a lifetime. The history of these very real wrecks is phenomenal, as is the beauty of the diving there. Our home for the first part of this adventure is the luxury liveaboard Odyssey, perhaps the most experienced operator in Truk.

After our week on board, we'll fly over to Palau, where we'll bask in the magic of this beautiful island above and below the surface. We'll spend a week in paradise exploring the islands and diving vibrant reefs and wrecks where big marine life abounds amongst a dizzying array of colorful reef fish. Swim in Jellyfish Lake, one of the world's most unique marine environments. Experience the islands' rich, yet somber, WWII history with an optional visit to Peleliu, site of the infamous Marine Corps battle. Our beachfront hotel is the Palau Sea Passion, and our diving will be with Sam's Tours, the most experienced operator on the island.

Part three of this mid-Pacific journey is the Island of Guam, another WWII historic site with evidence left from both sides all over the island and in the nearby waters. We'll have two full days of diving in Guam, plus guided land tours led by some of our own Indian Valley Scuba former Guam residents!

Count on Indian Valley Scuba to live up to our reputation, "Deliberately Different", as we offer you three islands of diving in one great trip! This adventure of a lifetime can be yours for only $4,880 per person plus airfare. Don't miss the boat on this one - sign up today!
